London is the capital of Britain and the United Kingdom. It is one of the world's largest cities with a population of 6,700,000. London was established by the Romans shortly after their invasion of Britain in 43 AD. The Romans built a city a square mile in size, surrounded it with a wall and called it "Londinium". This original site of London is now called the City of London and is only a very small part of it.

London is situated upon both banks of the River Thames. It consists of three parts: the City of London, the West End and the East End.

The Tower was founded by Julius Caesar and in 1066 rebuilt by William the Conqueror. It was used as a fortress, a royal palace and a prison. Now it's a museum.

The Houses of Parliament is the buildings in which the British parliament sits. The present Houses of Parliament were built between 1840-1867.

Big Ben. The Clock Tower is the symbol of London, known as "Big Ben".

Westminster Abbey is the crowning and burial place of British monarchs. It has its world famous poet's Corner with memorials to Chaucer, Shakespeare, Kipling and other leading writers. Many outstanding people are buried here: Newton, Darwin, Dickens and others.

The Tower Bridge is one of London's best-known landmarks. It is over the River Thames near the Tower of London and the last bridge before the sea.

Buckingham Palace. The Palace is the official home of the British royal family. When the flag is flying on the top, the Queen is at home. This palace contains almost 600 rooms.

Trafalgar Square. Trafalgar Square is named so in commemoration of Nelson's great victory. In the middle stands the famous Nelson Column with the statue of Nelson 170 feet high so as to allow him a view of the sea. The column stands in the geographical center of London.

The British Museum. It's the national museum of Britain, founded in 1753. It has one of the world's best collections of art and archaeological treasures.

Piccadilly Circus. This square is a well-known road junction in central London.

It's such a focal point on special occasions, such as a Coronation or on New Year's Eve.

Famous streets. Downing Street, 10 - the London residence of Prime Minister.

Fleet Street is the area where most of the important newspaper offices used to be.

2. Read the text.

Welcome to London! We are glad that you are here, and to make your stay nice and comfortable, we would like to inform you about what you may find unusual in London. First, of course, it is that we drive on the left side of the road, not on the right as Europe and America do. You should be very careful and attentive when you cross the road and look first to the right and then to the left, not like in your home country. If you don't know how to get around in the city, ask the nearest policeman. They are very polite and always eager to help. There are no trams or trolleybuses in London, the main transportation is buses and the metro, we call it the Tube. When you get on a bus, you should pay the fare. There is a special conductor for that. London buses have two floors, we call them "doubledeckers". They are of different colours, and that will help you find the bus you need. The London metro, or the Tube, is very convenient. It can get you to any place in the city, but it is a little too expensive. So, enjoy your stay in our capital.

3. Down the main differences between the means of public transportation in England and Ukraine (following the text)

	Traffic	Buses	Trolleybuses	Trams	Metro
England
Ukraine

GOOD LUCK!!!
